Unique Student Identifier

What is a USI?

The USI is a reference number made up of ten numbers and letters that:

- creates a secure online record of your recognised training and qualifications gained in Australia, from all training providers you undertake recognised training with
- will give you access to your training records and transcripts
- can be accessed online, anytime and anywhere
- is free and easy to create and
- stays with you for life

Who needs a USI and why?

If you are a new or continuing student undertaking nationally recognised training, you need a USI in order to receive your qualification or statement of attainment. If you do not have a USI, you will not receive your qualification or statement of attainment.

Your USI will give you access to an online record of the training you have done since 1 January 2015. You will also be able to produce a comprehensive transcript of your training. This can be used when applying for a job, seeking a credit transfer or demonstrating pre-requisites when undertaking further training.

If you do not have a USI, you need to apply for one, or give MAX Solutions permission to apply for one on your behalf. This permission is given via the RTO Enrolment form.

To ensure all participants have the complete and positive experience whilst undertaking training, MAX Solutions offers variety of learning support services which students are able to access throughout their time with MAX Solutions. On a weekly basis your Trainer will go through a Trainer Weekly report, this is a documented confidential discussion with your Trainer based around supporting you in your learning. If you feel or know, you require additional support we encourage you to discuss this with us upon enrolment so we can work with you to develop a personalised support plan based on an assessment of your individual needs. As a MAX Solutions student, you have access to one or all of the following support areas:

Language, Literacy and Numeracy support

All participants will undertake pre-enrolment eligibility assessments to ensure they have the skills to meet the language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) requirements and qualification entry requirements of their chosen training course. We encourage students with issues to seek assistance from MAX Solutions or your trainer. There are many occasions that trainers provide additional assistance to students. It might be additional learning support, recognition of a disability and adjustment to the learning environment or the hours of study, or referral to the MAX Health Support Officer.

Trainers complete a Student Support Plan for every new and current student (even if no support is required), so we can identify if there are (or are not) any barriers to learning and determine the type of support we can offer that will benefit your learning experience and overall outcome. Participants who require additional LLN support or remedial support will be referred to LLN specialists for assistance.

MAX Solutions is at all times concerned with the welfare of our participants. Staff is required to respond to and attempt to alleviate any signs of distress or discomfort by students.

We encourage participants to advise us if there are personal issues, which will affect their attendance or progression through the course. MAX Solutions staff will ensure options are available to minimise the impact on your course progress and provide alternatives, dependant on the circumstances, e.g., deferring course for a period.

- Distance Education

Training and Assessment Standards

MAX Solutions Trainers and Assessors have appropriate qualifications, expertise and experience to deliver quality training and assessment, which meets national Standards and Guidelines. Students are advised of assessment requirements before training commences.

Flexible Learning

MAX Solutions is committed to providing students with flexibility in their learning by considering their personal situations to:

- maximise learning outcomes, and
- optimise access to learning activities.

Flexible learning can include face-to-face or distance learning, on and off the job, online or a mixture of the options.

Some government-funded programs, including short courses are classroom based and may not be able to provide the flexibility available for other training options.

Assessment

Assessment is the process of collecting evidence and making judgments on whether competency has been achieved. The purpose of assessment is to confirm that you can perform the standard expected in the workplace. You will be provided with the assessment at the beginning of each unit of competency. Before starting the assessment, ensure you read the instructions carefully and talk to your assessor if you are not sure what is expected of you.

Assessment may consist of:

Direct observation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessed in real time in the workplace. • Assessed in a simulated off-the-job situation that reflects the workplace.
Product based methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Structured assessment activities such as reports, displays, work samples, role-plays, and presentations.
Portfolio	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A purposeful collection of work samples of annotated and validated pieces of evidence, compiled by the learner. • Evidence could include written documents, photographs, videos, logbooks or workplace logbooks.
Questioning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally more applicable to the assessment of knowledge evidence. • Assessment could be by written or oral questioning, conducting interviews and questionnaires.
Third-party evidence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The assessor often collects evidence. However, other people—such as supervisors, trainers, team members, clients or consumers—can report what they see or hear to the assessor. Evidence collected in this manner is called ‘third-party evidence’. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Third party evidence will be integral to the assessment where work placement is a mandatory component of a training package

MAX Solutions will retain all assessment items and evidence for a period of at least 6 months following the completion of your course. Your trainer will provide you with feedback and outcomes of assessment at the completion of each unit of competency. We recommend that you keep a copy of your completed assessment tasks before submission to your trainers, as part of your records.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition including recognition of prior learning (RPL) is a process for giving candidates credit for skills, knowledge and experience gained through working and learning.

RPL evidence may include a combination of the following:

- Evidence of current competence
- Performance, demonstration, or skills test
- Portfolio, logbook, task book, projects or assignments
- Written presentation
- Interview
- Case studies

What steps are involved in RPL?

MAX Solutions staff will explain the RPL Process in more detail and should you wish to proceed, staff will provide you with an RPL Application Form. We will provide guidance on how to undertake a RPL Process. MAX Solutions provides students with a RPL Kit, which contains the following:

- RPL Self-Assessment Questionnaire
- Candidate Statements
- Third Party Report/s
- Information on types of evidence to support RPL Submission.

Should you wish to continue with the process, the kit would provide a picture of what evidence you will need to provide to support your claim of RPL. You will then be provided with a timeframe to complete the RPL Kit and submit it. Your trainer will then arrange for a face-to-face meeting to ask a series of questions and explore your existing skills and knowledge further that relate to the unit of competency, which you are seeking RPL against. If you are unhappy with the decision, you will have a right to lodge an Appeal (Refer to Complaints and Appeals).

Credit Transfer (CT)

MAX Solutions recognise the qualifications, certificates and statements of attainment issued by all other Registered Training Organisations for nationally recognised training delivered in Australia.

Where it is identified upon enrolment that you have completed identical units of competency, you will be granted credit transfer automatically. You must provide a copy of the statement of attainment and/or qualifications (including a record of results) and the trainer will arrange to have the application processed. Successful RPL and CT applications can shorten the length of your course.

Complaints and Appeals

MAX Solutions ensures that all complaints and appeals are treated fairly and in accordance with the principles of access and equity and invite all students, employers and stakeholders to plainly state any complaints or feedback that they may have.

MAX Solutions will assess all complaints and appeals individually and makes decisions on the merit of the issue raised. All complaints and feedback from students are dealt with efficiently and effectively and use of the intranet based complaints database (or paper based equivalent) is integral to this. All complaints from students are acted upon when MAX Solutions learn of a stated or inferred indication of dissatisfaction with our training operations and/or personnel that will have the potential to negatively impact on the individual and/or the Company

- Each Complaint and Appeal and its outcomes will be recorded
- Each complainant has the right to have a support person present during meetings

- Each Complaint and Appeal can be heard by an independent person or panel (i.e. someone or some panel that is mutually agreed upon as independent)
- Each Complainant:
 - Has the opportunity to formally present his or her case
 - Provided with a written statement of the Complaint and Appeal outcomes, including reasons for the decision.
- We will act upon any substantiated complaint or appeal and these may result in a Continuous Improvement activity within MAX Solutions.

All appeals and complaints are reviewed and, if appropriate, will result in a corrective action or continuous improvements activity.

Complaints

Students, employers or stakeholders in relation to the services provided by MAX Solutions as an RTO can make complaints. If the student, employer or stakeholder feel MAX Solutions (staff, trainers etc.) has not met its expectations, we encourage individuals to express their concerns or issues to MAX Solutions staff.

In accordance with national standards, MAX Solutions has a fair and equitable policy for dealing with complaints about any aspect of our training and assessment services. MAX Solutions staff will provide you with further information on the policy and procedure in relation to complaints handling. The Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure is also available on our website www.maxsolutions.com.au/Training

In the first instance, MAX Solutions will encourage parties to resolve problems through discussion and conciliation. Students may be advised to complete a Customer Complaints and Feedback form, which will be attached to the lodged complaint in the Complaints and Feedback Register (internal).

If no resolution of the complaint at a local level, the issue is not resolved, then you can email our National Quality Manager, which is handled by the General Manager, Quality & Ethics at quality@maxsolutions.com.au

Alternatively, if you feel your concerns have not been resolved or cannot be resolved MAX Solutions acknowledges the need for an appropriate external independent agent to mediate between the parties. External independent agents are:

Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA), Regulator of the Vocational Education and Training Industry

Office of Queensland Training Ombudsman 1800 773 048

Except in extreme circumstances, the entire process should be finalised within 21 days.

You have the right to:

- Have a support person present during any meetings
- Receive a written outcome of the process

Appeals

What happens if you are assessed as Not Competent?

If you are assessed as Not Competent, you will be given the opportunity to develop the required skill level and resubmit your assessment, and given every opportunity to achieve a successful outcome.

If you feel the original, assessment was not fair you can appeal the assessment. In the first instance, you should discuss this with your trainer and assessor involved. This must occur within five (5) working days of the assessment outcome being advised. The trainer and assessor will make every attempt to resolve the appeal in this instance.

If after discussion you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, the trainer will require the student to lodge an appeal in writing; the trainer will request the student complete an Assessment Appeals Form. The Assessment Appeal Form is submitted to the General Manager, Training and they will contact the relevant parties involved to discuss further. This discussion should occur within five (5) working days of receipt of assessment appeals form.

If appeal is upheld, the student will be deemed competent and training results will be amended. If appeal is not upheld, the student will be advised of the outcomes and opportunity to arrange for an external independent assessor to re-assess the assessment and mediate the appeals process.

For further information on the Complaints and Appeals process and associated forms, students can access the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure on the MAX Solutions Training website

If the issue is referred, the student will be provided with a written statement of the misconduct and required to sign a Student Agreement – Conduct.

If the issue requires a cessation of tuition, the student will be given notice in writing, giving formal reasons for the determination and if no less than 18 years of age, notice will be given to the parent/guardian.

Where it is acknowledged that this is a continuance of the misconduct, the student will be requested to meet with a MAX Solutions representative to account for the circumstances under which this misconduct transpired and sign a declaration. The MAX Solutions representative will make a decision on the direction of action to be taken. At this phase, the student may be given a written notice of suspension from further training.

For training delivered in a third party environment (e.g., workplace), the third party's relevant disciplinary procedures will exist.

Fees and Charges

MAX Solutions maintains a fee structure for each course and qualification contained on its scope of registration.

The agreed fee structure, including course fees, administration fees, materials fees and other applicable fees are listed in your Training Agreement and/or on the Student Enrolment Form. The Training Agreement will also outline the payment schedule of fees. MAX Solutions requires payment of fees within 30 days of invoice date.

Details of fees are supplied in the course outline for each course and/or the Student Fees Contribution Form. The Student Contribution Form also contains information on exemption, partial exemptions that you may be eligible for. Please discuss this further with your Trainer and/or contact MAX Solutions Training Team.

Student or co-contribution fees

There are also many instances where Australian States and Territories provide subsidised training places for training initiatives, e.g. User choice for apprenticeships and traineeships. Students may be required to pay Student or co-contribution fees to the RTO.

Student or co-contribution fees are the student's contribution to the cost of the delivery of training and assessment.

Concessions or waivers may be available, depending upon the requirements of the various funding contracts. Specific information about student fees and waivers will be provided prior to enrolment into one of these training initiatives.

Refunds

MAX Solutions ensures that all fees paid are correctly receipted and recorded in accordance with the financial management policy and procedure and/or state based contractual requirements. MAX Solutions will only provide refunds under the below circumstances:

Course Cancellation

In the instance that MAX Solutions cancels a course, the student is entitled to a full refund or transfer of funds to another course.

In the instance that the course has been cancelled after it has commenced (and prior to completion), MAX Solutions will offer the student an alternative course or part thereof. If the student accepts the alternative course, no refund will be given and no additional fees will be charged.

If the alternative course is not accepted, a full refund will be provided to the student, including Administration Fee.

Enrolment Changes

If the student wishes to change and enrol into another course being offered by MAX Solutions, any fees paid may be applied to the new enrolment, with additional fees owing from the new enrolment to be paid by the student.

In the event of a student's enrolment being cancelled due to misconduct, no refund will be provided and any outstanding fees MUST be paid.

Student Requested Refund

If a student requests a refund prior to course commencement, a full refund (minus administration fee of $50) will be provided to the student. Once the course has commenced, refunds will not be provided unless:

- The student can provide medical reasons with a Medical Certificate, OR
- The student can provide reasoning for their course enrolment to cease – personal hardship

If a refund is granted, the refund amount is to be pro-rata based on MAX Solutions Financial Management procedure. If a refund is not granted, any outstanding fees must be fully paid by the student.

Where a Course Material fee has been charged, a refund may be provided upon the return of any unused course materials.

Students must apply for refunds in writing and clearly outline the reasons for the refund request, and attach any supporting documentation.

Outstanding Fees

MAX Solutions adheres to a debt management procedure for all outstanding fees greater than 30 days. All payment terms and conditions are listed on your invoice as well as being clearly stated in your Training Agreement.

If fees are 14-30 days outstanding, a reminder call will be made to the payee with a follow-up reminder call.

If fees are outstanding after 30-74 days, MAX Solutions will advise the payee in writing that the matter has been referred to MAX Solutions legal representatives if there is no response from the payee after a second reminder letter has been issued. MAX Solutions legal representatives will then deal with the debt collection process.

Your results may not be released until such time outstanding fees are paid. Non-payment of fees will result in the interruption of your training.

Completion

Upon completion of your course, MAX Solutions will issue a Certificate or Statement of Attainment based on your results.

Issuing of Awards

In general, MAX Solutions issue two (2) types of awards:

Full qualification issued under the Australian Qualifications Framework. These qualifications include Certificate I to IV, Diploma, Advanced Diploma, Vocational Graduate Certificates or Diplomas. Full qualifications can only be issued once the student has been deemed competent across all the relevant units of competency making up the qualification. Information about the actual results of competency is available in your course outline.

Statement of Attainment is issued when the student is deemed competent in specific units of competency but not all the units of competency within the qualification.

Awards will only be issued upon the student meeting all course requirements. Qualifications and Statement of Attainment will be issued according to the Standards for RTO's 2015

Your results may be withheld if you have any fees owing or if you have been excluded from MAX Solutions course.

Re-issue or replacement of Certificates and Transcripts, Statement of Attainment

Certificates and Transcripts and/or Statement of Attainment are posted to you at the completion of your course. Make sure you keep copies of your transcripts because they list of all the competencies you have achieved.

If you require a replacement/re-issue Certificate and Transcript and/or Statement of Attainment, you must advise MAX Solutions in writing and a fee may apply. Where a fee applies, the fee must be paid before your replacement certificate or statement is posted.

Traineeship Information

Australian Apprenticeship Support Network (AASN)

Australian Apprenticeship Support Network are contracted by the Commonwealth Government to provide information, advice and assistance to employers, Apprentices/Trainees throughout the life of the training contract, and to assess, approve and process the payment of Commonwealth incentives and subsidies. It is important to note that only Australian Apprenticeship Centres can advise employers about their eligibility for Commonwealth payments. The employer can choose from a number of AASN's. To find an Australian Apprenticeship Support Network Provider, contact 13 38 73.

State Training Authorities

State Training Authorities (STA) are the only authority with the State legislative responsibility to approve, refuse, amend, monitor and regulate Traineeships. The STAs work cooperatively with AASN and supervising registered training organisations in exercising this authority. The parties to a training contract may raise any issue or concern regarding the Traineeship, or the provision of services, either with the Australian Apprenticeship Centre, the supervising registered training organisation or directly with the local office of the department.

Trainee Obligations

The obligations of a trainee are:

- Observe the conditions of the relevant employment agreement or award
- Attend and perform work as directed by the employer
- Behave in a courteous and professional manner
- Obey all lawful directions
- Work towards achievement of the competencies detailed in the Training Plan
- As instructed, undertake any training and assessment detailed in the Training Plan
- Maintain a record of training in their Training Record Book

NOTE: While the Trainee is under 18 years, the parent/guardian identified in the training contract must ensure he/she upholds the responsibilities listed above. When the trainee turns 18, the parent or guardian is no longer party to the contract.

The training contract ends on the signing of a completion agreement acknowledging the completion of the training.

Probationary Period

Probation period for apprenticeships is 90 days and 30 – 60 days for traineeships (this includes part-time and school based apprenticeships and traineeships). State departmental offices and Australian Apprenticeship Support Networks can provide information on the appropriate probationary period for the Traineeship.

Trainees should consider issues that include the following:

- Suitability for the traineeship
- Level of satisfaction with their choice of industry and training scheme
- Ability to commit themselves to the employer for the duration of the traineeship
- Whether the industry offers them a future
- Satisfaction with relevant industry relations arrangements

If, for any reason during probation, either party wish to withdraw from the training agreement the right exists to unilaterally do so. That right exists during probation only and expires with the expiry of the probation period. It is therefore imperative that the parties use probation wisely and for the purpose it is intended.

Training Plan

There must be a Training Plan for all Trainees and if the person is under more than one training contract, there must be a Training Plan for each Traineeship.

A Training Plan provides a structured approach to the development and attainment of skills for a particular qualification. A Training Plan must be negotiated and the contents agreed to by the Trainee, employer and registered training organisation. The Training Plan must be finalised during the Probation period and signed by the parties. Registered Training Organisations such as MAX Solutions can be funded by the department to assist the parties in identifying skill needs and to discuss the prioritising of skill attainment.

A properly negotiated Training Plan will:

- Provide an opportunity to select what, how, where and when skills will be achieved
- Provide a measure to assess the Trainee's progress
- Assist the parties to manage, plan and map the Trainees work rotation
- Identify a timeframe by which skills must be demonstrate
- Detail the training methods to be undertaken and the monitoring arrangements (i.e., how and when assessment will occur).

Over the duration of your traineeship, the Training Plan will be reviewed and updated version/s will be distributed and will require your signature. MAX Solutions will provide you with a copy of the reviewed, signed and completed Training Plan once all parties have agreed.

Training Record Book

MAX Solutions is required to issue a Training Record Book to trainees within 14 days of the Training Plan being signed. The purpose of the Training Record Book is to record the achievement and progression of unit of competencies agreed within the Training Plan. Training Record Book is an important document that must be kept and maintained by the Trainee in the workplace throughout their training program and given to the employer and MAX Solutions for inspection and to have entries updated, on a regular basis of no more than 3 months. State Government Authorities also monitor the progression documented in students Training Record Book.

The Training Record Book belongs to the Trainee and may be used to:

- Show employers what training they have completed
- Tracks progression throughout traineeship
- Gain credit or exemptions in another training course
- Assist in preparing future job applications
- Determine competency levels thereby supporting eligibility or ineligibility for wage progression
- Confirm completion of the training program and eligibility for issue of a qualification
- Assess skill levels should competency be the subject of dispute between the Trainee and the employer

Cancellation

Cancellation of a training contract should only be considered as a last resort, after all efforts have been made to resolve the issues that threaten the continuation of your training.

During the probationary period, either party (the trainee or the employer) can withdraw from the traineeship and cancel the training contract at any time.

Once probationary period has completed, cancellation of a registered training contract can occur:

- When the parties of the training contract mutual agreement i.e., the employer, trainee and where relevant, the parent or guardian; or
- In certain circumstances, by the Department of Education and Training or its agent
- Where the parties do not agree, application made to the state training authority, which will decide the matter; or
- Determination of the state training authority.
- Prior to considering cancellation action, the parties should make every effort to resolve their difference. Departmental officers can assist in resolution negotiations.

Mutual agreement

Should the parties mutually agree to cancellation of the Training Contract, they must prepare and sign a written request to cancel and forward it to the Australian Apprenticeship Support Network (AASN) provider or the department (relevant to State).

The request should nominate the reason for cancellation and the agreed date of cancellation. The cancellation takes effect on approval by the State Government Training Authority.

Cancellation where parties do not agree

If one party only wishes to withdraw from the Training Contract, an application for cancellation can be lodged with the State Government Training Authority for its investigation. Whilst awaiting the decision, the employment and training contract maintains its status as a legally binding agreement. Accordingly, the parties are obliged to continue to honour their commitments under the contract.

If you want more information on Traineeships in your State/Territory, please contact MAX Solutions Training Team who will be able to assist you with your questions.

Traineeship Fees and Charges – Tuition Fees

Some Trainees will be required to pay fees relating to their training. Criteria relating to the maximum fees payable and to exemptions from fees exist. MAX Solutions will explain how these fees relate to you during the Enrolment/Induction Process, with some student contribution fees calculated per nominal hour for each Unit of Competency delivered. The dollar rate per nominal hour is included on the Student Fees Contribution Agreement form.

If by chance, you withdraw from the Traineeship before completing all of your training, you should contact MAX Solutions to discuss the refund of any fees for training not yet commenced. For those Units commenced by not yet completed, a proportionate payment of the Student fees, will be made. Please refer to MAX Solutions Refund section in the Participant Handbook.

The Student Fees Contribution Agreement also lists the exemption categories that apply in your state/territory with regards to Student Contribution Fees. If you fall into one or more of the exemption/partial exemption categories, MAX Solutions will apply the exemption to the Student Contribution Fees.

Payment plans and payment schedules of Student Fees will be negotiated and agreed to during the Enrolment and Induction Process.
